Version 10.01.02

The image displays a musical score for the piece "Earl of Loudoun's Strathspey". It is arranged for Violin, Flute, and Cello. The score is written in 4/4 time and B-flat major. The Violin part is the most complex, featuring many slurs and ornaments. The Flute and Cello parts are simpler, providing a harmonic and rhythmic foundation. The score is divided into three systems, each starting with a measure number (1, 5, and 10). The first system covers measures 1-4, the second system covers measures 5-8, and the third system covers measures 9-12. Each system ends with a double bar line and repeat dots.

"A strathspey is a lively scottish dance resembling the reel, but having a slower movement."
